

Dr. Mirau Mbise, a Tanzanian born on 5th December, 1970, is the Lecturer in Economics at Mkwawa University College of Education (A Constituent College of the University of Dar es Salaam). He holds a PhD in Agricultural and Resource Economics (University of Malawi, 2016); MSc. in Agricultural Economics (Sokoine University of Agriculture, 2007) and BSc. in Agricultural Economics and Agribusiness (Sokoine University of Agriculture, 2002). Dr Mirau Mbise started lecturing at Mkwawa University College of Education (MUCE) in year 2006 as assistant lecturer before he was promoted to lecturer in year 2016. He has been teaching Macro and Microeconomics courses for more than twelve years now since he was employed at MUCE in 2006. Dr. Mirau Mbise was also appointed Coordinator of Economics and Commerce Unit at MUCE from 2014 to 2015 before he was promoted to the post of Associate Dean Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, the post he served for three years up to 2018. His areas of research are but not limited to agricultural marketing and resource economics. He has authored a number of publications in international peer-review journals. He has also reviewed many journal papers.