

Willy Kasuga

Mr. Willy Kasuga is an Assistant Lecturer in the Department of Educational Psychology and Curriculum Studies at Faculty of Education, Mkwawa University College of Education (MUCE) (A constituent college of the University of Dar es Salaam). In 2006 he joined Mkwawa University College of Education (MUCE) to pursue his Bachelor of Education in Science (B.Ed.Sc) and completed in 2009. He was employed at MUCE in 2009 as a tutorial assistant in the educational psychology and curriculum studies department. In 2010 he joined the University of Dar es salaam for Masters of education in Science education and succeeded to complete in 2012. While working at MUCE as an Assistant Lecturer, he served as an Examination Officer in the Faculty of education from October 2012 to September 2014, Associate dean, Faculty of Education from October 2014 to November 2015 and Deputy Quality Assurance coordinator of the College from November 2015 to October 2016. In October 2016 he joined the University of Dar es Salaam for his PhD studies and currently he is still pursuing it with an expectation to complete in 2020.

Contacts

E-mail: kiwangomumanyi@yahoo.com and willy.kasuga@muce.ac.tz

Phone: +255755905729

Area of specializations and research interests

He is interested in science education, learner-centred teaching approaches, curriculum studies, educational statistics and educational measurement and evaluation.

Publication

Kasuga, W. (2016). An investigation on the use of learner-centred teaching and learning strategies in Biology subject for secondary schools in Tanzania: A case study of Iringa Municipality. Researchjournali's Journal of Education, 4(1) ISSN 2347-8225